Rates are calculated on a per session basis.

Please note that services for couples and families do not attract the government Medicare rebate

All fees are payable on the day of consultation.

If the session involves a face to face consultation, cancellations made less than 24hrs notice will be charged at the full rate. Cancellations for sessions conducted via video telehealth, do not attract a cancellation fee.

Please note that this service does not provide bulk-billing. A reduced rate is available upon request in exceptional circumstances.

Fees are subject to change, and may attract a price increase at the commencement of each financial year.

* Each year the Australian Association of Social Workers (AASW) publishes a set of recommended fees for accredited social workers who are self-employed as private practitioners. At Harris Counselling we are committed to providing the lowest most affordable prices to our clients and offer services at a subsidised rate to meet the needs of low to middle income earning couples / families.

For information with regards to these guidelines, please visit the AASW website on: <https://www.aasw.asn.au/>
